

CLASS IV
PREPOSITION

COVER PAGE

Q1: Complete the following poem using a suitable preposition.

A girl _____ the island of Jade was eating her lunch _____ the shade.
She sat _____ a tree.
_____ the blue sea.
Then jumped _____ the water to wade.

Cinders entered the ballroom _____ eight.
She danced with the prince _____ late.
As the clock struck midnight
Cinders fled and jumped _____ the gate.

The prince told the King in dismay
He must find his true love _____ May.

But the next day _____ 2.00,

Cinders tried on the shoe

And they wed _____ the church on that day.

Q2: Complete the following sentences with the help of suitable prepositions:

1. Starting _____ today, parking is not allowed in this area.
2. Riya lives very _____ to school.
3. Dad nearly fell _____ the ladder.
4. Sit _____ me so that we can talk.
5. The people were not allowed to leave the building _____ they were told to do so.

Q3: Use suitable prepositions to complete the letter given below.

Dear Mom

Hello! I reached my hostel _____ 7 o'clock _____ the morning. The new session will begin _____ tomorrow. My room is very comfortable. It has a double bed. I have kept my suitcase _____ the bed. There is a study table _____ the bed. I have kept my clothes and all other things _____ the cupboard. I hope life here will be as nice as it was _____ home. I'll write again _____ Saturday.

With love

Sheena

Q4: In each line a preposition is missing. Use appropriate preposition to complete the statement.

The sun was shining brightly / the afternoon _____

so I called my friends / lunch. _____

They came at 1 o' clock in the afternoon / their parents. _____

They bought chocolates / me. _____

I took them / dining room. _____

The delicious food was served / my mother. _____

My father brought ice-cream / the shop. _____

And we had a happy meal together.